Dr. Ben Carson’s Non-Profit Organization, the American Cornerstone Institute, Partners with Teach Them Diligently

Today, the American Cornerstone Institute (ACI) announced it is partnering with Christian homeschool organization, Teach Them Diligently.

“I am elated to announce this exciting partnership,” said ACI Founder & Chairman, Dr. Ben Carson. “Teach Them Diligently is an incredible organization with a powerful mission, and we are blessed to be able to share our Little Patriots program’s free resources and materials with such a wonderful community of like-minded educators, faith leaders, and Christian families. We are grateful for the opportunity to be part of their ministry and look forward to future collaboration with Teach Them Diligently.”

So far, ACI has participated in two Teach Them Diligently homeschool conventions in Pigeon Forge, TN, and Branson, MO. Dr. Carson delivered keynote remarks at both events, highlighting the importance of educating the next generation of Americans on the true history of this country and preserving family and godly values amidst an increasingly secular culture. Following his remarks, Dr. Carson held a book signing for his latest book on the decline of the American family, titled The Perilous Fight. The Perilous Fight is out now and available wherever books are sold.

Completely free of charge, Little Patriots provides educational resources on America’s founding and civics for kindergarten through 5th grade, including grade-specific supplemental curriculum, a fun and engaging cartoon series, “Star Spangled Adventures,” and children’s books written by Dr. Carson.
