

The American Cornerstone Institute seeks qualified undergraduate students for an internship in its Policy, Communications, or Development offices for the Spring of 2025.

As a non-profit think tank founded by Dr. Ben Carson, ACI works to promote the four cornerstones of American greatness: Faith, Liberty, Community, and Life.

Cornerstone interns are expected to work in person in our D.C. office and will be provided a stipend. The internship duration is flexible depending on individual needs.

Interested individuals should email the following items (in PDF format) to garrison.grisedale@americancornerstone.org and grayson.knox@americancornerstone.org:

- A resume, including your GPA;
- A cover letter explaining your interest in ACI and your desired office placement (Policy, Communications, or Development);
- A writing sample that demonstrates your abilities, preferably about a topic that is important to you.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis, but must be submitted no later than November 8, 2024. Thank you for your interest in ACI, and we look forward to meeting you!
